General Local News.

L. BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1876.

Miss Nellie Taylor, of this place, accompanied by Mr. Warren Griffin, of Elizabethtown, spent several days in Owensboro, last week.

James McGill, a brother of Mrs.
H. K. Wells of Millwood, was thrown from his horse and instantly killed at his residence near Sonora, Hardin county, on Friday evening last.

The melancholy song of the whippoorwill is faintly heard on the distant hill.

Mr. Isaac Mendel, that genial clever and wide-awake dry goods merchant, of Cromwell, Ky., paid this office a visit last Friday.

Hon. Geo. W. Ray, candidate for Judge of the criminal court of this district, spent several days in our town last week looking after his interest in Ohio county.

Wallace Graule, late of the Riverside Weekly Louisville stopped a few days in this city last week. Mr. G—left last Saturday for Owensboro where he will take charge of the Monitor. Mr. Campbell its editor having gone South.

Messrs. Ulrich & McBurnie, two enterprising young shoe merchants of Louisville Ky., have given us an advertisement which appears in this issue. Read it, and when you want nothing in their line, do not fail to send them your order, and our word for it, it will be filled satisfactorily.

Miss Manie Williams, of this city, a young lady of rare intellect, beauty and refinement, in company with Mrs.
Joseph Miller, of Beaver Dam Ky., left Monday morning to visit relatives in the East, the former in Williams burg Mass., the latter, in Hartford Conn.

Mr. Bunch, whose advertisement appears in our advertising columns of this issue, is one of the live men of Grayson county. In the last two months he has shipped from his mill to the Short Line Railroad, and other places more lumber than any other two saw mills, in Grayson county.
Parties favoring Mr. Bunch with orders, will find the utmost punctuality in filling the same.

As will be seen in this issue, Hon.
W. F. Gregory, of Hartford, Ky., announces himself as a candidate for Judge of the Criminal court in this, the Fifth Judicial District, the election to take place in August 1876.— Judge Gregory is a sound, energetic lawyer, and a genial, cultivated, high-toned gentleman, and will make a strong race for the criminal judgeship.—Elizabethtown News.

A Miss Barnett living in the No Creek Settlement, a few days ago while mounting her horse to attend church, had her veil blown off by a slight puff of wind, and instead of the veil falling to the ground, it ascended and when at the height of about three hundred feet, it took a westerly course and was soon out of sight. It is said that but little breeze was stirring which makes the case a most remarkable one. We suppose the next unnatural shower we hear of will be that of veils, so Bath county had better be on the look-out.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of John P.
Martin & Co. which appears elsewhere in our columns. This is the most extensive book concern in the West, and the personally acquainted with the members of the firm, and all their attaches, and can cheerfully say that they are all gentlemen in the full sense of the word.

A Sad Occurrence.

Mrs. Foreman, wife of W. P. Foreman, was found dead in her own house yesterday evening. The appearance indicate that she took her own life.— Death was produced by a pistol shot, the pistol being found near her. She lost an only daughter about a year ago, and since that time she has been very despondent, and it was thought by some that her mind was partially impaired by reason of her deep sorrow.
Her husband came down town and left a colored boy with her, and she sent him down to the water mill to get a pig which Mr. Hunter had given to Mr. Foreman, and when he returned, he found her as above stated. Poor woman! Her spirit ere this is, no doubt, with that of her daughter Mary in that Heavenly Land above. She was a kind, good woman, and when thoroughly at herself, was always kind to sick and afflicted; and many, many friends will mourn her untimely death.

A Rare Feast.

The ladies of our town will have a grand dinner prepared for the first day of Circuit Court. The dinner will be at the new Methodist church and will consist of everything nice and good embraced in the long catalogue of edibles. The proceeds of the dinner will be used in completing the new church. They will also set a supper on Tuesday night following, the proceeds to be used for the same purpose. Lawyers, litigants, witnesses and jurymen attending court, will please give the ladies their patronage and thereby encourage a good work.

GRAYSON COUNTY ITEMS.

News of the County by Our Regu- lar Correspondent.

Eli Harned a fourteen year old son of the Rev. James Harned of Millwood, has met with a sad misfortune in the complete loss of his reason. A few days since he appeared to enjoy perfect health, but complained occasionally of a severe pain in his head.
Last Monday his parents noticed something peculiarly strange in his actions, but paid little attention to it until a day or two afterwards when it became too apparent that reason had entirely fled her throne. The youth was an intelligent bright boy, and no reason can be assigned for his misfortune, the disease not being hereditary. The family have sympathy of the whole community in their trouble.

Only one marriage license issued from the County Clerk's office in the last ten days. Ohio County is beating Grayson all to pieces on the "Wedding" question. Fly around girls for the honor of old Grayson! his leap year, you know.

We always knew a goat had spunk.
But not until a few days ago, did we ever have the pleasure of seeing one try to butt a locomotive off the track, while under full headway.

A child belonging to George Rodgers (col.), was found dead in its bed last Tuesday morning in Litchfield. A coroner's inquest being held, elicited the facts of the child having been subject to extreme harsh treatment from its father. This led to a post mortem examination, which resulted in a verdict being given that death was caused by "Scrofulous disease of the bowels," thus clearing the child's father in the eyes of the law, but not in the eyes of the community.

Mr. Mudd living near Millwood, had sixteen, out of a flock of eighteen sheep, killed by dogs one night last week. The death of one worthless cur, was all the satisfaction received, for this wholesale slaughter. So much for the keeping of innumerable worthless dogs, and the absence of the dog law in Grayson County.

If Mr. Ashby gives us the assurance, that his grandmother has actually finished picking her geese, we will trot out our Robin, and several red headed woodpeckers that we observe have again put in their appearance among the hills of Grayson.

A protracting meeting, under the auspices of the Methodist denomination is being held in Litchfield, Revs.
Messrs. Scoobe and Needham afficiating. Several additions to the church have already crowned their labors, which is really astonishing in a town possessing so many members of the legal fraternity as Litchfield.

We are informed by our deputy clerk, that a youth of sixty-four summers, procured a license recently to wed a damsel of sweet fourteen. The last seen of the buoyant groom he was sitting astraddle an empty flour barrel, trying to knock the "March of the Ages," out of a ten cent jews-harp, he had previously bought, expressly to celebrate the happy occasion.

Very few tobacco plants were injured the late cold spell in this county.
Spring work is progressing at an unusual rate, among our farmers.— We believe the Grange has knocked a good deal of laziness out of its members, as they appear to be taking hold of the plow handles in earnest this spring.

Grayson county can beat the world for beautiful women, and—all the varieties of the tick tribe, from the art-less little seedling, up to a full grown beauty, with a white spot on her back.

"Fair land of rich marl beds," must henceforth be the poetical expression used to designate, what was once known, as "old tick eaten Grayson."

"The beautiful Miss so and so, was visiting," correspondents, are out again in the Grayson Journal and the Hartford Herald. Will such, never learn, that their nonsensical personalities are uninteresting and distasteful to the general readers of a public journal.

With the aid of the inexhaustable marl, our farmers intend raising a threefold crop this season. God speed the plow, and the precious marl.

About eighty wagon loads of tobacco, was the amount received Friday and Saturday of last week, at the warehouses in Litchfield.

Life is too short, to waste any of it, in quarrelling with a rogue.

FROM McLEAN COUNTY.

ISLAND STATION, KY., April 24.
EDITOR HERALD.—How true the maxim, "procrastination is the thief of time." Indeed this adage has been verified by the experience of your correspondent at this place, who, jealous of the growing popularity of his contemporaries, (correspondents to the HERALD,) vainly seeks for a suitable object on which to display poetical genius or prosaic skill. Alas! The "Miserable Snow" is gone, (no offense).
And the "Miserable Mud," though here in abundance, is too deep and complicated for a shallow mind to penetrate. Hence, no poem, no biographical sketch, but items from town and county, will be the style of correspondence.

Then to begin with these, I first take a glance at our town, it is undergoing considerable change in the way of improvement. Mr. B. Shacklett will move to his new residence in time to patronize J. W. Eaton's new store which is about completed with a Masonic Hall in the upper story.— This done, our town can boast of two stores, one tobacco factory, and one blacksmith shop, all of which are in prosperous condition, and promising success in the future. But is none the less flattering to take a minute survey of the "Rural District." Here the busy farmer may be seen with plow and hoe preparing the soil for the future crop. And as yet, he has much to encourage him in his toil; for prospects are favorable. Wheat and oats have seldom look better at this time of year, and tobacco plants are beautiful. The fruit crop was injured greatly by the late freeze,— though the later varieties of fruit have partially escaped.

Markets generally remain unchanged. Tobacco is nearly all sold, and there are few sales except in the matrimonial market from which to quote. In this, quotations may be made as follows:
Widowers active, going at 40, 50 and 55 to suit buyers. Bachelors slow sale and small profits, going at 30 and 35, without wigs, 38 and 40 with wigs.

But little is said in this section about political affairs, but Centennials are creating a sensation. Very good.
But why not have a grand Centennial Reform too? Why not begin this Reform by paying up arrearsages to Editors. Although it be a small sum they may owe, such sums are indispensable to the welfare of a class of men who are doing much to promote the general welfare of the nation.

NEMO.

Mountain Wedding.

The following is the way a marriage ceremony was performed in one of the mountain counties, as reported by a correspondent of the Flemingsburg Rambler:

THE CEREMONY.

"Tom, do you take this female for better or worse?"

"Certainly, square; I cum a purpose," responded Tom.

"Delilah, do you take this man and promise to stick to him through thick and thin?"

"You bet, old hoss," answered Deli-lah, "d'ye spose I'd have these fixins for ennything less'n a marriage?"

"Then I pronounce you man and woman—no husband and wife, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls—Amen.

THE SUPPER.

The supper was excellent, consisting in part of pancakes, maple lasses, ginger-bread, hominy, and venison.

A toast, "Bully for the bride," was drunk standing, and thirty-three of the crowd were drunk sitting.

THE MAKE UP OF THE BRIDE AND

GROOM.

The bride was arrayed in a gorgeous calico of Dolly Varden pattern, brilliant with all the colors of the rainbow, each separate color representing some feathered biped, from gobblers to peacocks. Instead of the customary orange blossoms in her hair, there was an enormous variegated imitation hollyhock.

Plunged on the top of her head, and extending to her waist, was a scarlet ribbon four inches wide, doing duty as the bridal veil, with the solitary and not worth noting difference that it was behind instead of before.

The bridegroom was gotten up without regard to expense; blue jeans coat surmounted with brass buttons about the size of a silver quarter; said coat built on the "clawhammer" or "scissors" tail" order of architecture; butter-nut colored pants, with red flannel vest with eagle buttons and cotton velvet collar; brogan shoes, greased with lard and tied with coon-skin strings.

THE PRESENTS.

The wedding presents were numerous and intended for use more than ornament, as follows: 1 bread tray, 1 dozen iron spoons, sausage grinder, 2 wash tubs, 3 flat irons, 1 dozen brooms, 1 dozen tin cups and pans, 2 stew pots, 2 skillets, and a variety of other articles not now remembered.

There was one article, the use of which your correspondent was not able to ascertain—a sugar trough with rockers on it.

Upon asking information of the bride, she blushed slightly, elevated her delicate nose, and remarked: "Of all the fools I ever see, editors and preachers are the biggest."

boro road—Is supposed to have gone to

An absent minded Ohio woman got the coffee pot ready for boiling and then carelessly placed it on a chair and sat herself on the stove. Although the occa- sion was dreadfully suggestive of some of the early martyrs, she managed to derive some consolation out of it from the well improved opportunity it afforded her of obliging her husband to buy her a new dress, which, as soon as she was well enough, she made up herself with the as- sistance of the "Domestic" Fashions and a new "Domestic" sewing machine.

Farm for Sale.

I desire to sell my farm of 185 acres of land, about two miles North

Perils by Land.

Within the limits of our own country are to be found almost all the variations of climate known to the habitable globe.
But extensive as is our domain, the lecomotive running at almost lightning speed, conveys the traveller in a few hours from the healthy mountain district to the agreeable plain, and even from the sunny groves of the south to the ice bound shores of the northern lakes. In making these rapid journeys the travellers are subjected to those severe climatic influences so productive of sickness and discomfort. It is therefore of vital importance that he should be provided with a remedial agent that will not only cure, but likewise prevent sudden attacks of disease. THE SEVEN SEALS or GOLDEN WONDER, which is a Counter Irritant, a Disinfectant, a Diffusive Stimulant, an Anodyne, a Nervine and a Tonic, is a sure prevention and a no less effectual cure of Fevers, and Ague, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and all other ailments to which travellers are especially liable.
No traveller should fail to provide himself with a supply of this valuable remedy before starting upon his journey.
